

Final Project Dataset

The dataset I will use is called Customer Churn Dataset on Kaggle. I don't believe that I will need to perform any major data cleaning on this dataset other than simply figuring out how to properly convert the relevant categorical data to function correctly with the other numerical data and other feature improvements. I can combine or remove features as I go however if I find that a feature is irrelevant or to create more features.

